

Performance Review Coaching Script

Hi [Team Member], I want to start by acknowledging the effort you've been putting into the project. That said, I've noticed a few deliverables have slipped recently, and I'd like to understand how I can support you better. Our shared goal is to maintain high-quality work and meet our deadlines, and I know you're capable of that. Let's talk through what's been blocking your progress and come up with a plan to help you stay on track—whether it's rebalancing your workload, revisiting the timeline, or identifying any skill gaps. I believe in your growth, and I'm here to help you succeed.
